

WHAT IS THE PULSTAR AND HOW IS IT DIFFERENT?

The PulStar uses a hand held impulse head containing sensors that are connected to a sophisticated computer program. Each spinal joint is analyzed for proper function and then displayed as a graph providing both the doctor and patient with precise information regarding joint functions.

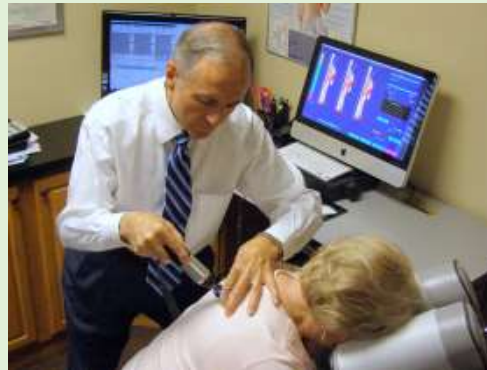

This data, along with other clinical information obtained from the patient history, examination, etc., is used to determine the most effective course of treatment to obtain the best results in the shortest period of time.

In treatment mode, the PulStar delivers a series of gentle, precise, computer-controlled impulses to free joint fixations, relieve muscle spasms and restore normal joint function.

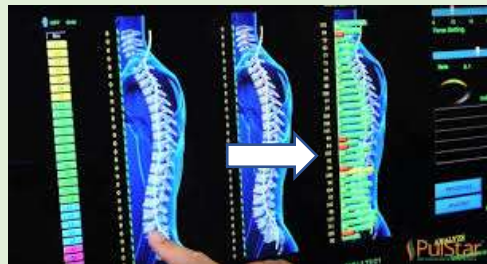

A post-analysis is performed and compared to the pre-treatment analysis to visualize and verify the result of your treatment.

The computer analyzes your spine and identifies areas that need treatment while helping the doctor apply precise pressure in precise areas of the body.

Using impulse therapy, the doctor can treat back, neck and extremities safely and effectively with no cracking, snapping or popping.

Red and yellow indicate problem areas before treatment is performed.

The PulStar is FDA cleared 510 (k) K973914 and is unsurpassed for accuracy and results. Treatments are low-force which replace the need for high-force adjustments.

"The doctor and staff have been amazing. I had neck, lower back, and headaches caused by pinched nerves. Without popping my back and making me crack from top to bottom, he used a machine to vibrate my neck and spine to relieve the tension. It worked and I'm glad I was there. I would very highly recommend Living Well Chiropractic and the wonderful staff!" Alisha E.

I've had fibromyalgia since 1993. I've had several surgeries and thought I was going to have another knee surgery soon. After seeing Dr. Wilcox, my knee pain is gone and my artificial knee doesn't pinch when I move it anymore. I could go on as he's helped several issues I've had following surgeries. I want to say that Dr. Wilcox has helped my daughter as well with her headaches, which she was being seen at Children's Mercy Hospital for previously." Jill M.

"The day I went to Dr. Wilcox, I couldn't get up off my couch without assistance, much less walk upright. I was walking much better by the end of the appointment and by the end of the week, I felt better than I had in years! I highly recommend him and his awesome PulStar system for anyone who needs chiropractic care!" Chelle S.

"The doctors and staff at Living Well Chiropractic are so warm and friendly and caring! It's such a great place to come to get better both physically, nutritionally and for overall well-being. Finally the pain in my shoulders is healing. I'm so I came here – well worth the 3-hour drive from Kansas City. Looking forward to my next visit!" Paul O.
